

debra van
debravan1@aol.com
wilton, Connecticut 06897

This state used to be family oriented and friendly for all ages. Retirees are moving out of this state - many times due to taxes. We are planning a second home where we will spend 6months and 1 day. So it would be great if CT because the most, not the least, tax friendly state.