

Orrie Zolluccio
Lexzcat@aol.com
Wilton, Connecticut 06897

For many seniors Social Security is their only income. In some cases 1600 to 2000 per month. People making minimum wage make more than this. I can only think of my late dad who lived on 1600 per month or 400 per week. How can we tax this money that has already been taxed by both state and federal government???