

James Bednarz
Plainville, Connecticut 06062
United States

I vehemently oppose Bill 452. I find it abhorrent that the state should bear one penny of the cost of Dunkin Donuts Park in Hartford. This park was an unpopular project with residents throughout central Connecticut. If this exception IS allowed for Hartford, the same exception MUST be made for any municipally owned entertainment venue that is taxed including but not limited to New Britain Stadium. It cannot be selective. All or none!