

Jeffrey Caggiano
Bristol, Connecticut 06010
United States

Very simply, the state is in no financial position to invest in a baseball stadium in Hartford!
We have to focus our attention on hospitals, mental health, roads, and true business development.
We have a spending problem and this project might have a small regional impact, but realistically has local impact only in Hartford whose taxpayers should foot the bill.