

David Rackliffe
Bristol, Connecticut 06010

If you have taxpayer dollars to burn and you want to spend them on financing an ill-advised minor league baseball project that was woefully underfunded by the city of Hartford, how do you explain the draconian measures taken on hospitals who provide services to people in real need? Where is the social balance? I am firmly against providing state dollars for this ball park and would rather see the money spent reinstating needed funds to hospitals