

David Spencer
Plainville, Connecticut 06062

There always seems to be payoffs, paybacks or scams involved with this kind of contract with government whether it be municipal, state or federal. This should be investigated. Contracts with government should be firm. Cost overruns seem to be the rule rather than the exception. Contracts can be underbid and once signed just have "unanticipated" cost overruns appear magically and shazam, the taxpayer is on the hook. Enough already. Not one penny more!