

I support HB 5300, which will remove the trigger clause from CT's current GMO Labeling law. I want to know how the food I am feeding my family is produced. Every single item that can be purchased should be labeled.

— Jessica Stone