

I support the banning of hydraulic fracturing wastes in the state of Connecticut. I do not feel we should suffer the risk of accidents or spills and the potential for costly contamination cleanup, or economic losses due to poisoned waters. I am glad that our legislature is considering taking bold action on this.
Scott Perkins, 239 Old Farms Road, Avon