

Dear fellow citizens,

I believe it has been made clear to us this year that the will of the people has been aborted by use of the Electoral College. It is high time to dispense with this archaic custom and simply let the people of the United States choose our national leaders by popular vote.

Sincerely,

Elizabeth Greenleaf
813 Edgewood Ave

--

Lisa Greenleaf, LMFT

Life does not cease to be funny when people die any more than it ceases to be serious when people laugh.
- George Bernard Shaw