

I strongly urge you to please not pass this bill where our electoral votes go to popular vote winner.

This is a backdoor play to try to own the presidential election...this is un constitutional and we are the constitution state.

The electoral college was put in place as a checks and balances on large urban populations from deciding presidents, and it must be defended

“

Thank you.

Mark Lombardo | Branch Manager
Mortgage Loan Originator