

HB 5591

Subject	HB 5591
From	Deanna Spartachino
To	LABTestimony
Sent	Thursday, February 16, 2017 8:29 AM

There is no legitimate reason to offer different compensation for the same work based on ANY differences, be it race, gender, religion , sexual orientation. Though this should go without saying, women continue to be paid less than men for the same work, therefore we must create legislation to protect these rights, since they are clearly threatened in today's economic and political climate. I am writing in support of a bill that holds employers accountable for pay equity in the work place.

Deanna Spartachino
Fairfield, CT