Sec. 18. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) A protected series transferable interest of a protected series must be owned initially by an associated member of the protected series or the series limited liability company that established the protected series.

Sec. 20. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) A member of a series limited liability company which is not an associated member of a protected series of the company has a right to information concerning the protected series to the same extent, in the same manner and under the same conditions that a nonmanager member of a manager-managed limited liability company has a right to information concerning the company under subdivisions (2) and (3) of subsection (b) of section 34-255i of the general statutes.

(b) A person that was formerly an associated member of a protected series has a right to information concerning the protected series to the same extent, in the same manner and under the same conditions that a person dissociated as a member of a limited liability company has a right to information concerning the company under subsection (c) of section 34-255i of the general statutes.

(c) If an associated member of the protected series dies, the legal representative of the deceased associated member has a right to information concerning the protected series to the same extent, in the same manner and under the same conditions that the legal representative of a deceased member has a right to information concerning the company under section 34-259c of the general statutes.

(b) In determining a claim under subparagraph (B) or (C) of subdivision (3) of subsection (a) of this section, a court may apply the law of this state instead of the law of the foreign jurisdiction of the foreign series limited liability company if the court determines that applying the law of the foreign jurisdiction advances a policy or produces a result repugnant to the public policy of this state. In making the determination, the court shall consider:

(1) The specificity, clarity and forcefulness with which the law of this state reflects a contrary public policy;

(2) Whether the claimant is a resident of this state or for another reason reasonably might expect the law of this state to apply; and

(3) Any relevant choice-of-law rule of law of this state.

Sec. 27. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) In determining whether a foreign limited liability company or foreign protected series of the company has transacted business in this state or is subject to the jurisdiction of the courts of this state:

(1) The activities and affairs of the company are not attributable to a protected series of the company solely because the company established the protected series; and

(2) The activities and affairs of a protected series are not attributable to the company or another protected series of the company solely because the company established the protected series or the other protected series.

Sec. 28. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) Sections 16 and 22 of this act apply to any asset located in this state owned by a foreign series limited liability company or foreign protected series subject to the personal jurisdiction of the courts of this state.

Sec. 29. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) Except as otherwise provided in this section and subject to section 27 of this act, the law of this state governing the registration of a foreign limited liability company to do business in this state applies to a foreign protected series as if the foreign protected series were a foreign limited liability company organized separately from the foreign series limited liability company that established the foreign protected series and distinct from the foreign company and any other foreign protected series of the foreign company.

(b) An application by a foreign protected series for registration to do business in this state must include:

(1) The name and jurisdiction of formation of the foreign series limited liability company that established the foreign protected series applying for registration; and

(2) If the company has other protected series, the name, street, mailing and electronic mail address of an individual who knows the name, street mailing and electronic mail address of each other foreign protected series and the protected series manager of and agent for process for each other foreign protected series.

(c) The name of a foreign protected series applying for registration or registered to do business in this state must comply with section 11 of this act. A foreign protected series may comply with section 11 of this act pursuant to section 34-275e of the general statutes.

(d) The requirement in section 34-275c of the general statutes to amend a statement of registration to update information applies to the information required by subsection (b) of this section.

(A) Each foreign protected series of the company; and

(B) Each protected series manager of and an agent for service of process for each foreign protected series of the company; and

(b) The time to make disclosure under subsection (a) of this section is tolled if the foreign series limited liability company or foreign protected series challenges the personal jurisdiction of the tribunal. If the tribunal rules in favor of its jurisdiction, the tolling ends.

(c) If a foreign series limited liability company or foreign protected series does not comply with subsection (a) of this section, a party to the proceeding may:

(1) Move the tribunal to treat the noncompliance as a failure to comply with the tribunal's discovery rules; or

(2) Bring a separate proceeding in the Superior Court to enforce the requirements in subsection (a) of this section.

Sec. 31. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) In applying and construing the provisions of sections 1 to 33, inclusive, of this act, consideration must be given to the need to promote uniformity of the law with respect to its subject matter among states that enact such provisions.

Sec. 32. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) Sections 1 to 33, inclusive, of this act modify, limit and supersede the Electronic Signatures in Global and National Commerce Act, 15 USC Section 7001 et seq., but do not modify, limit or supersede Section 101 (c) of that act, 15 USC Section 7001 (c), or authorize electronic delivery of any of the notices described in Section 103 (b) of that act, 15 USC Section 7003 (b).

Sec. 33. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) Sections 1 to 32, inclusive, of this act do not affect an action commenced, proceeding brought or right accrued before October 1, 2017.

Sec. 34. Section 33-756 of the general statutes is repealed and the following is substituted in lieu thereof (Effective October 1, 2017):
(a) A director shall discharge his duties as a director, including his duties as a member of a committee] Each member of the board of directors, when discharging the duties of a director, shall act: (1) In good faith; [2(2) with the care an ordinarily prudent person in a like position would exercise under similar circumstances; and (3)] and (2) in a manner [he] the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

[(b) In discharging his duties a director is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, if prepared or presented by: (1)
One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the matters presented; (2) legal counsel, public accountants or other persons as to matters the director reasonably believes are within the person's professional or expert competence; or (3) a committee of the board of directors of which he is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

(c) A director is not acting in good faith if he has knowledge concerning the matter in question that makes reliance otherwise permitted by subsection (b) of this section unwarranted.

(d) For purposes of sections 33-817, 33-830, 33-831, 33-841 and 33-844, a director of a corporation which has a class of voting stock registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as the same has been or hereafter may be amended from time to time, in addition to complying with the provisions of subsections (a) to (c), inclusive, of this section, may consider, in determining what he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, (1) the long-term as well as the short-term interests of the corporation, (2) the interests of the shareholders, long-term as well as short-term, including the possibility that those interests may be best served by the continued independence of the corporation, (3) the interests of the corporation's employees, customers, creditors and suppliers, and (4) community and societal considerations including those of any community in which any office or other facility of the corporation is located. A director may also in his discretion consider any other factors he reasonably considers appropriate in determining what he reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

(e) A director is not liable for any action taken as a director, or any failure to take any action, if he performed the duties of his office in compliance with this section.

(f) A director is not liable under this section for any act or omission in the course of performing the duties of a director under subsection (a) of section 33-1358 if the director performed such duties in compliance with this section and section 33-1358.

(b) The members of the board of directors or a board committee, when becoming informed in connection with their decision-making function or devoting attention to their oversight function, shall discharge their duties with the care that a person in a like position would reasonably believe appropriate under similar circumstances.

(c) In discharging board or committee duties, a director shall disclose, or cause to be disclosed, to the other board or committee members information not already known by them but known by the director to be material to the discharge of their decision-making or oversight functions, except that disclosure is not required to the extent that the director reasonably believes that doing so would violate a duty imposed under law, a legally enforceable obligation of confidentiality, or a professional ethics rule.

(d) In discharging board or committee duties, a director who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on the performance by any of the persons specified in subdivision (1) or (3) of subsection (f) of this section to whom the board may have delegated, formally or informally by course of conduct, the authority or duty to perform one or more of the board's functions that are delegable under applicable law.

(e) In discharging board or committee duties, a director who does not have knowledge that makes reliance unwarranted is entitled to rely on information, opinions, reports or statements, including financial statements and other financial data, prepared or presented by any of the persons specified in subsection (f) of this section.

(f) A director is entitled to rely, in accordance with subsection (d) or (e) of this section, on: (1) One or more officers or employees of the corporation whom the director reasonably believes to be reliable and competent in the functions performed or the information, opinions, reports or statements provided; (2) legal counsel, public accountants or other persons retained by the corporation as to matters involving skills or expertise the director reasonably believes are matters (A) within the particular person's professional or expert competence, or (B) as to which the particular person merits confidence; or (3) a board committee of which the director is not a member if the director reasonably believes the committee merits confidence.

(g) For the purposes of sections 33-817, 33-830, 33-831, 33-841 and 33-844, a director of a corporation that has a class of voting stock registered pursuant to Section 12 of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as the same has been or hereafter may be amended from time to time, in addition to complying with the provisions of subsections (a) to (c), inclusive, of this section, may consider, in determining what the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation, (1) the long-term as well as the short-term interests of the corporation, (2) the interests of the shareholders, long-term as well as short-term, including the possibility that those interests may be best served by the continued independence of the corporation, (3) the interests of the corporation's employees, customers, creditors and suppliers, and (4) community and societal considerations, including those of any community in which any office or other facility of the corporation is located. A director may also consider, in the discretion of such director, any other factors the director reasonably considers appropriate in determining what the director reasonably believes to be in the best interests of the corporation.

Sec. 35. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) A director shall not be liable to the corporation or its shareholders for any decision to take or not to take action, or any failure to take any action, as a director, unless the party asserting liability in a proceeding establishes that:

(1) No defense interposed by the director based on (A) any provision in the certificate of incorporation authorized by subdivision (4) or (6) of subsection (b) of section 33-636, or (B) the protection afforded by section 33-782 of the general statutes, for action taken in compliance with section 33-783 or 33-784 of the general statutes, or (C) the protection afforded by section 33-785 of the general statutes, precludes liability of the director; and

(2) The challenged conduct consisted of or was the result of (A) an action not in good faith; (B) a decision (i) which the director did not reasonably believe to be in the best interests of the corporation, or (ii) as to which the director was not informed to an extent the director reasonably believed appropriate in the circumstances; (C) a lack of objectivity due to the director's familial, financial or business relationship with, or a lack of independence due to the director's domination or control by, another person having a material interest in the challenged conduct (i) which relationship or which domination or control could reasonably be expected to have affected the director's judgment respecting the challenged conduct in a manner adverse to the corporation, and (ii) after a reasonable expectation to such effect has been established, the director has not established that the challenged conduct was reasonably believed by the director to be in the best interests of the corporation; (D) a sustained failure of the director to devote attention to ongoing oversight of the business and affairs of the corporation, or a failure to devote timely attention, by making, or causing to be made, appropriate inquiry, when particular facts and circumstances of significant concern materialize that would alert a reasonably attentive director to the need for such inquiry; or (E) the receipt of a financial benefit to which the director was not entitled or any other breach of the director's duties to deal fairly with the corporation and its shareholders that is actionable under applicable law.

(b) The party seeking to hold the director liable:

(1) For money damages, shall also have the burden of establishing that (A) harm to the corporation or its shareholders has been suffered, and (B) the harm suffered was proximately caused by the director's challenged conduct;

(2) For other money payment under a legal remedy, such as compensation for the unauthorized use of corporate assets, shall also have whatever persuasion burden may be called for to establish that the payment sought is appropriate in the circumstances; or

(3) For other money payment under an equitable remedy, such as profit recovery by or disgorgement to the corporation, shall also have whatever persuasion burden may be called for to establish that the equitable remedy sought is appropriate in the circumstances.

(c) Nothing in this section shall:

(1) In any instance where fairness is at issue, such as consideration of the fairness of a transaction to the corporation under subdivision (3) of subsection (b) of section 33-782 of the general statutes, alter the burden of proving the fact or lack of fairness otherwise applicable;

(2) Alter the fact or lack of liability of a director under any provision in sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes such as the provisions governing the consequences of an unlawful distribution under section 33-757 of the general statutes or a transactional interest under section 33-782 of the general statutes; or (3) Affect any rights to which the corporation or a shareholder may be entitled under another chapter of the general statutes or a section of the United States Code.

(4) "Failure of authorization" means the failure to authorize, approve or otherwise effect a corporate action in compliance with the provisions of sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes the certificate of incorporation or bylaws of the corporation, a corporate resolution or any plan or agreement to which the corporation is a party, if and to the extent such failure would render such corporate action void or voidable.

(5) "Overissue" means the purported issuance of: (A) Shares of a class or series in excess of the number of shares of a class or series the corporation has the power to issue under section 33-665 of the general statutes at the time of such issuance; or (B) shares of any class or series that is not then authorized for issuance by the certificate of incorporation.
(6) "Putative shares" means the shares of any class or series, including shares issued upon exercise of rights, options, warrants or other securities convertible into shares of the corporation, or interests with respect to such shares, that were created or issued as a result of a defective corporate action, that (A) but for any failure of authorization would constitute valid shares, or (B) cannot be determined by the board of directors to be valid shares.

(7) "Valid shares" means the shares of any class or series that have been duly authorized and validly issued in accordance with sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes, including as a result of ratification or validation under sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act.

(8) "Validation effective time" means, with respect to any defective corporate action ratified under this section and sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act, the later of (A) the time at which the ratification of the defective corporate action is approved by the shareholders, or if approval of shareholders is not required, the time at which the notice required by section 40 of this act becomes effective in accordance with section 33-603 of the general statutes; and (B) the time at which any certificate of validation filed in accordance with section 42 of this act becomes effective. The validation effective time shall not be affected by the filing or pendency of a judicial proceeding under section 43 of this act or any other provision of law, unless otherwise ordered by the Superior Court.

Sec. 37. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) A defective corporate action shall not be void or voidable if ratified in accordance with section 38 of this act or validated in accordance with section 43 of this act.

(b) Ratification under section 38 of this act or validation under section 10 of this act shall not be deemed to be the exclusive means of ratifying or validating any defective corporate action, and the absence or failure of ratification in accordance with sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act shall not, of itself, affect the validity or effectiveness of any corporate action ratified under common law or otherwise, nor shall it create a presumption that any such corporate action is or was a defective corporate action or void or voidable.

(c) In the case of an overissue, putative shares shall be valid shares effective as of the date originally issued or purportedly issued upon:

(1) The effectiveness under sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act, and under sections 33-795 to 33-809, inclusive, of the general statutes of an amendment to the certificate of incorporation authorizing, designating or creating such shares; or (2) the effectiveness of any other corporate action under sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act, ratifying the authorization, designation or creation of such shares.

Sec. 38. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) To ratify a defective corporate action under this section, other than the ratification of an election of the initial board of directors under subsection (b) of this section, the board of directors shall take action ratifying the action in accordance with section 39 of this act, stating: (1) The defective corporate action to be ratified and, if the defective corporate action involved the issuance of putative shares, the number and type of putative shares purportedly issued; (2) the date of the defective corporate action; (3) the nature of the failure of authorization with respect to the defective corporate action to be ratified; and (4) that the board of directors approves the ratification of the defective corporate action.

(b) In the event that a defective corporate action to be ratified relates to the election of the initial board of directors of the corporation under subdivision (2) of subsection (a) of section 33-639 of the general statutes, a majority of the persons who, at the time of the ratification, are exercising the powers of directors may take an action, stating: (1) The name of the person or persons who first took action in the name of the corporation as the initial board of directors of the corporation; (2)
the earlier of the date on which such persons first took such action or were purported to have been elected as the initial board of directors; and (3) that the ratification of the election of such person or persons as the initial board of directors is approved.

(c) If any provision of sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes, the certificate of incorporation or bylaws, any corporate resolution or any plan or agreement to which the corporation is a party in effect at the time action under subsection (a) of this section is taken requires shareholder approval or would have required shareholder approval at the date of the occurrence of the defective corporate action, the ratification of the defective corporate action approved in the action taken by the directors under subsection (a) of this section shall be submitted to the shareholders for approval in accordance with section 39 of this act.

(d) Unless otherwise provided in the action taken by the board of directors under subsection (a) of this section, after the action by the board of directors has been taken and, if required, approved by the shareholders, the board of directors may abandon the ratification at any time before the validation effective time without further action of the shareholders.

Sec. 39. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) The quorum and voting requirements applicable to a ratifying action by the board of directors under subsection (a) of section 38 of this act shall be the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the corporate action proposed to be ratified at the time such ratifying action is taken.

(b) If the ratification of the defective corporate action requires approval by the shareholders under subsection (c) of section 38 of this act, and if the approval is to be given at a meeting, the corporation shall notify each holder of valid and putative shares, regardless of whether entitled to vote, of the record date for notice of the meeting and of the date of the occurrence of defective corporate action, provided notice shall not be required to be given to holders of valid or putative shares whose identities or addresses for notice cannot be determined from the records of the corporation. The notice must state that the purpose, or one of the purposes, of the meeting is to consider ratification of a defective corporate action and must be accompanied by (1) either a copy of the action taken by the board of directors in accordance with subsection (a) of section 38 of this act or the information required by subdivisions (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a) of section 38 of this act, and (2) a statement that any claim that the ratification of such defective corporate action and any putative shares issued as a result of such defective corporate action should not be effective, or should be effective only on certain conditions, shall be brought not later than one hundred twenty days after the applicable validation effective time.

(c) Except as provided in subsection (d) of this section with respect to the voting requirements to ratify the election of a director, the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the approval by the shareholders required by subsection (c) of section 38 of this act shall be the quorum and voting requirements applicable to the corporate action proposed to be ratified at the time of such shareholder approval.

(d) The approval by shareholders to ratify the election of a director requires that the votes cast within the voting group favoring such ratification exceed the votes cast opposing such ratification of the election at a meeting at which a quorum is present.

(e) Putative shares on the record date for determining the shareholders entitled to vote on any matter submitted to shareholders under subsection (c) of section 38 of this act, and without giving effect to any ratification of putative shares that becomes effective as a result of such vote, shall neither be entitled to vote nor counted for quorum purposes in any vote to approve the ratification of any defective corporate action.
(f) If the approval under this section of putative shares would result in an overissue, in addition to the approval required by section 38 of this act, approval of an amendment to the certificate of incorporation under sections 33-795 to 33-809, inclusive, of the general statutes to increase the number of shares of an authorized class or series or to authorize the creation of a class or series of shares so there would be no overissue shall also be required.

Sec. 40. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) Unless shareholder approval is required under subsection (c) of section 38 of this act, prompt notice of an action taken under said section shall be given to each holder of valid and putative shares, regardless of whether entitled to vote, as of (1) the date of such action by the board of directors, and (2) the date of the defective corporate action ratified under sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act, provided notice shall not be required to be given to holders of valid and putative shares whose identities or addresses for notice cannot be determined from the records of the corporation.

(b) The notice must contain (1) either a copy of the action taken by the board of directors in accordance with subsection (a) or (b) of section 38 of this act, or the information required by subdivisions (1) to (4), inclusive, of subsection (a) of said section or subdivisions (1) to (3), inclusive, of subsection (b) of said section, as applicable, and (2) a statement that any claim that the ratification of the defective corporate action and any putative shares issued as a result of such defective corporate action should not be effective, or should be effective only on certain conditions, shall be brought not later than one hundred twenty days after the applicable validation effective time.

(c) No notice under this section is required with respect to any action required to be submitted to shareholders for approval under subsection (c) of section 38 of this act if notice is given in accordance with subsection (b) of section 39 of this act.
(d) A notice required by this section may be given in any manner permitted by section 33-603 of the general statutes and, for any corporation subject to the reporting requirements of Section 13 or 15(d) of the Securities Exchange Act of 1934, as from time to time amended, may be given by means of a filing or furnishing of such notice with the United States Securities and Exchange Commission.

Sec. 41. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) From and after the validation effective time, and without regard to the one-hundred-twenty-day period during which a claim may be brought under section 43 of this act: (1) Each defective corporate action ratified in accordance with section 38 of this act shall not be void or voidable as a result of the failure of authorization identified in the action taken under subsection (a) or (b) of said section and shall be deemed a valid corporate action effective as of the date of the defective corporate action; (2) the issuance of each putative share or fraction of a putative share purportedly issued pursuant to a defective corporate action identified in the action taken under section 38 of this act shall not be void or voidable, and each such putative share or fraction of a putative share shall be deemed to be an identical share or fraction of a valid share as of the time it was purportedly issued; and (3) any corporate action taken subsequent to the defective corporate action ratified in accordance with sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act, in reliance on such defective corporate action having been validly effected and any subsequent defective corporate action resulting directly or indirectly from such original defective corporate action, shall be valid as of the time taken.

Sec. 42. (NEW) (Effective October 1, 2017) (a) If the defective corporate action ratified under sections 36 to 43, inclusive, of this act would have required under any other provision of sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes a filing in accordance with sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes, then, whether or not a filing was previously made in respect of such defective corporate action and in lieu of a filing otherwise required by said sections of the general statutes, the corporation shall file a certificate of validation in accordance with this section, and such certificate of validation shall serve to amend or substitute for any other filing with respect to such defective corporate action required by said sections of the general statutes.

(b) The certificate of validation must set forth: (1) The defective corporate action that is the subject of the certificate of validation including, in the case of any defective corporate action involving the issuance of putative shares, the number and type of putative shares issued and the date or dates upon which such putative shares were purported to have been issued; (2) the date of the defective corporate action; (3) the nature of the failure of authorization in respect of the defective corporate action; (4) a statement that the defective corporate action was ratified in accordance with section 38 of this act, including the date on which the board of directors ratified such defective corporate action and the date, if any, on which the shareholders approved the ratification of such defective corporate action; and (5) the information required by subsection (c) of this section.

(c) The certificate of validation must also contain the following information: (1) If a filing was previously made in respect to the defective corporate action and no changes to such filing are required to give effect to the ratification of such defective corporate action in accordance with section 38 of this act, the certificate of validation must set forth (A) the name, title and filing date of the filing previously made and any certificate of correction to that filing, and (B) a statement that a copy of the filing previously made, together with any certificate of correction to that filing, is attached as an exhibit to the certificate of validation; (2) if a filing was previously made in respect of the defective corporate action and such filing requires any change to give effect to the ratification of such defective corporate action in accordance with section 38 of this act, the certificate of validation must set forth (A) the name, title and filing date of the filing previously made and any certificate of correction to that filing, (B) a statement that a filing containing all of the information required to be included under the applicable provisions of sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes to give effect to such defective corporate action is attached as an exhibit to the certificate of validation, and (C) the date and time that such filing is deemed to have become effective; or (3) if a filing was not previously made in respect of the defective corporate action and the defective corporate action ratified under section 38 of this act would have required a filing under any other provision of sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes, the certificate of validation must set forth (A) a statement that a filing containing all of the information required to be included under the applicable provision or provisions of sections 33-600 to 33-998, inclusive, of the general statutes to give effect to such defective corporate action is attached as an exhibit to the certificate of validation, and (B) the date and time that such filing is deemed to have become effective.

Sec. 43.
