

While out-of-staters will contribute to the cost of financing our roads if tolls are introduced Connecticut taxpayers are the ones who will be burdened with this tax.

Please, please do not authorize a return to toll booths.

Instead concentrate on reducing state expenditures beyond the presently indicated cuts.

Let's return Connecticut to the level of states to which Americans are drawn. Enough with high tax state status. Let's become competitive.

Tim Dineen
Norwalk, CT