I DO NOT support the subject under any circumstance. The CT state government needs to start managing state business responsibly. They may start by cutting out the waste and the inane wasteful projects like the Hartford (incomplete) ball field, and the bus-line that doesn't carry any passengers!?

Lastly, you may want to consider sending Gov. Malloy and his minions, out to INDIANA for a quick tutorial, on how to manage state government; they really know how to do it cost-effectively!!
