

I support the H.B. No. 536 proposal for a fee on carbon dioxide-creating fuels sold for use in our state.

Not only does our state need revenue, but this proposal is consistent with recommendations to reduce the income tax by substituting sales taxes. Moreover, unlike general sales taxes, a price specifically on carbon would have the beneficial side effect of being a small step toward reducing the dangers, and expenses, of rapid climate change.

Alan Donaldson
New Canaan, Connecticut