

Dear Environmental Committee;

Please support carbon pricing in Connecticut. This is a good common sense method for reducing greenhouse gases and promoting the expansion of renewable energy sources. This will be a low cost way of reducing the greenhouse gases and the adverse impacts resulting from climate change, which we, as a coastal state, are particularly vulnerable to. I feel we owe it to our grandchildren to take action now.

Thank you.

Judy Liebeskind
233 Saddle Hill Rd
Stamford, CT 06903