

I strongly believe that as a society we will eventually have to face the idea of global warming as a result of human activity. To that extent I strongly encourage you to adopt carbon pricing to help our communities deal with the eventuality of our behaviours and the consequences we will have to accept. Please consider adopting carbon tax to assist future generations and help drive markets in the right direction,

Sincerely,

--

Cheryl Schechter
CT resident and concerned citizen of the planet.