

We have to make the votes in CT count in national elections. As of now, there is no reason for candidates to pay any attention to our state. This is a serious disincentive to voting, which then affects voting in state and local elections.

Betty Krasne