

I am sure the founding fathers had our best interests at heart when they drafted the electoral college. At this point in time, that process does not align with the country's votes. I implore you to pass the National Popular Vote bill so that our citizens will be at peace with the future outcome of our elections.

Terry Briggs Perrelli