

To whom it may concern,

Local breweries have given the state an important economic boost in their creation of revenue and jobs. They are good citizens and hardy fiber in the fabric of their communities.

They are the meeting place for many. They open their doors for all manner of events and are charitable to a fault. They deserve your support in ridding the restriction of the archaic 9 liter rule.

Please consider this and vote accordingly.

Cheers,~B.

Ernest Britton