

To whom it may concern ,

It is unfair to restrict local breweries in Connecticut to a 9 liter sale limit. Especially when all surrounding states have unlimited sales. This not only lowers tourism dollars for the state but inhibits local businesses from receiving the revenue they work hard for.

Thank you,

Owen Mackinnon