

As a resident and avid supporter of craft breweries and local businesses in general, I support the bill to eliminate the 9 liter limit as it confines local businesses to a standard not required of international companies. Why should local businesses be limited when Inbev and it's companies are not limited? Profits go to outside the US while these businesses support local jobs and the local tax base. Eliminate the 9 liter limit!

Regards,
Rick Weaver