

To whom it may concern:

I strongly ask that you committee vote down this bill. Everywhere such bills have passed have seen horror stories of people coerced into signing such requests by greedy relatives who want them out of the way. Everywhere such bills have passed has seen horror stories of people signing such requests but then being denied the opportunity to retract the request. This is evil. Stop it. With proper palliative care there is no need for such legislation. Vote it down!

Thomas F. Davis
Fairfield CT