

Dear Legislators,

As our society gains a higher level of knowledge in the field of medical science related to Terminal Care, our laws must keep in step via updated legislation. Accordingly, I'm convinced that this new legislation would be beneficial to the terminally ill population of CT.

John Follis
Stamford, CT