

Dear Public Health Committee,

I write in support of medical aid in dying. It is clearly the humane option to have for the person who is suffering in her final days. Connecticut has shown to be a progressive state in so many areas; it's time to add death with dignity to the list. The only people that benefit from a protracted death are those in the medical industry.

Thank you,

Linda Hudson

Westport, CT 06880