HB 6346

AN ACT CONCERNING THE REVIEW OF MUNICIPAL ARBITRATION AWARDS.

SUMMARY

This bill extends the deadline for a municipality to reject an arbitration award to the next business day if the deadline falls on a weekend or holiday. Current law allows a municipality to reject an arbitration award within 25 days after it receives the arbitrator's decision. It must do so by a two-thirds vote of the members of its legislative body who are present at a regular or special meeting called and convened for such purpose.
