

New Canaan School district has long been a national leader in education thanks in large part to our foundational belief in the importance of local voice and control. I moved to New Canaan primarily for the schools. We are retired but still have children in the New Canaan school district. Leave our schools alone!!!

Kristin Evans
New Canaan, CT