Subject: Calling in Opposition to SB 738, SB 457, and SB 874

To Whom it may concern,

I am writing to express my strong opposition to Senator Looney & Senator Duffs proposed bills PSB 738, PSB 457 and PSB 874 and any other bill that opens the door to forced regionalization of Connecticut public schools.

I will vote against any candidate that supports regionalization in the state.

As a parent of public school students in Wilton Connecticut, I have witnessed first hand the benefits of locally run public schools. My children are educated in a nurturing environment where teacher engagement is high, individualized student learning is understood and acknowledged and high achievement is praised.

My husband and I were both born and raised in Connecticut. After marriage, work took us to another part of the country, but we chose to return to Connecticut to raise and educate our children. We moved specifically to Wilton because of the schools and my children have benefited from the public schools and the community feel here – as have I as an active volunteer in the schools.

Though I understand how economies of scale appear attractive from a fiscal standpoint, this bill attacks our most precious asset as a community and as a state - the quality of our schools. If approved, this bill would only further an additional outflow of residents, many of whom came to this state for the schools, further eroding state revenue and worsening the state's fiscal crisis.

Further, I am certain that the geographical incompatibility of the surrounding towns in Fairfield County alone would increase transportation costs, thereby negating any savings offered via economies of scale and would only succeed in eliminating local control and harming school quality.

For these reasons, I implore you for your support in opposing PSB 738, PSB 457 and PSB 874 or any other efforts to force consolidation of Connecticut public schools.

Sincerely,

Margaret Harrison
