

To whom it may concern,

I am opposed to regionalization of schools because it is another attempt to share the burden of cities who are failing to manage their expenses and want to be parasites on the backs of those municipalities whose financial practices are sound.

Thank you.

Maureen K. Heilman