

Bill 457 and Bill 738

Democrats running amok once again!

No to mandated regionalization!! You Dems well know where you get your votes from, and it's not from "towns with less than 40,000 people" mainly. So the big cities stay put and you, with their votes, shift the state and lose the small town culture which is its legacy and attraction.

Shame on you, you must think what this will do to the culture and well-being of the people who do not live in Bridgeport, New Haven, Hartford, et al.

I sometimes think that Democrats are hell-bent on ruining things for us at every turn.

Take your big city liberalism and move to California (or neighbor New York) where you really belong.
