

As a resident of New Canaan, we are strongly opposed to the school regionalization bill in Connecticut which would not only strongly diminish the quality of education in our state, but drive home values down and stop new growth and population from moving into the state at an already perilous time for the economy of Connecticut. We beg you to not pass this bill - leave Connecticut public schools status quo.

Neil and Jennifer Mehta
New Canaan, CT residents and homeowners

Sent from my iPhone