

As a lifelong Connecticut resident, I am so saddened to see what is happening in my state. CT is rapidly spiraling out of control with all the new taxes, tolls and now this school regionalization. I am ADAMANTLY opposed to these bills. CT schools should be left to the individual cities and towns to manage, not forced to regionalize and not penalized for choosing not to participate.

Please keep my local schools local!

Susan Napoli
Ridgefield, CT