

I am a 15 year resident of New Canaan, CT with 6 children. During my time in New Canaan, the state of Connecticut has allowed taxes to rise and services to decline. My commute to NYC gets worse every year. The primary factor in maintaining property values in New Canaan is the high quality school system. Regionalization would lead to declines in educational quality, accelerate the decline in property values and force more people to leave CT. This is an insane idea.

Chris O'Connor

290 Oenoke Ridge, New Canaan, CT