

Please vote NO on SB 874

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing in response to the proposed regulations regarding homeschooling. Let me make it clear that I do not want or need any government infringement upon my parental rights to take care of my family.

I have experienced the destructive effects that public school has had on my two eldest sons. I will not subject my third son to such ills. I prefer him to be educated by the people who love him, see his creative talents and do not desire his life to be molded by negative societal pressures of conformity and apathy. As parents, we hold the responsibility of educating our children as we see fit. We have been our children's first teachers and understand each one's unique abilities, talents, and temperament best. Consider the positive statistics in regards to the success of homeschooled children. I implore you to imagine the wonderful impact these children can have on our communities, state and world. Thank you for your time.

Sincerely,

Pamela Dinger
