

To Whom It May Concern,

I am a concerned resident of Redding, CT in Fairfield County. I ask that you do the following:

1. Vote NO on SB 874, SB 738 and SB 457.
2. Regarding SB 874, SB 738 and SB 457, forced regionalization is bad for our entire education system in the State and will remove the local control of our schools that has defined our unique communities. Forced regionalization has failed in several states and does a dis-service to all State residents.
3. Regarding SB 874, homeschooling parents should not be required to personally sign a registration form at the local school.
4. Regarding SB 874, homeschooling parents do not need a model curriculum offered by the CT Department of Education. Curriculum are already available on the website of the CT Department of Education, and there are various other curriculum easily accessible and available to parents.

Almost 5 years ago, my Husband's job relocated us to the northeast. We actively chose to live in Connecticut because Connecticut has NO home-schooling regulations. This type of proposed regulation is entirely unnecessary and is yet another example of government over-reach.

Sincerely,

Hillary Ungerer
