

RE: In Opposition to Governor's Bil 874 sec 17 and 18.

February 18, 2019

Dear Members of the Education Committee,

I am writing to you as a concerned parent. I oppose sec 17 and 18 of S
In the past, Connecticut has been a beautiful example of what a parent educate their own children looks like. It has been a joy to home educa families plan to continue to enjoy this freedom. It's working and does n It appears that families that educate their children at home are being wish to gain power. For what reason? It is a parent's inalienable right t their child.

I hope that instead of following proponents that wish to gain unnecess families, Connecticut would continue to be a state that allows families own homes (if they wish) without the overreaching eye of the state.

Also, homeschool families have thousands of curriculums available to know their own child's bent, they are able to choose curriculums base learning style. As we all know, this leads to a better learning experienc interested in the curriculum choices of the public school system.

I have three adult children that were educated at home. All three have education and are valuable members of their communities. Homescho that are set in place do not need to be changed or added to.

Thank you for your time.

Warm Regards,
Dorothy Vecchio