OFA Fiscal Note

State Impact: None

Municipal Impact: None

Explanation

The bill: 1) restores electoral privileges to convicted felons on parole, with the exception of anyone convicted of an election-related felony, and 2) permits convicted felons on parole to circulate nominating petitions. Under current law, convicted felons can only become electors once discharged from confinement and parole. No fiscal impact is anticipated as the bill extends the restoration of electoral privileges to certain parolees.
