SPONSORS OF BILL:

Education Committee

REASONS FOR BILL:

This bill is a job training measure meant to provide students with useful real estate skills which are exportable to job performance and higher education.

SUBSTITUTE LANGUAGE:

This substitute language is a technical change which does not fundamentally change its enacting.

RESPONSE FROM ADMINISTRATION/AGENCY:

None.

NATURE AND SOURCES OF SUPPORT:

Senator, Eric Berthel:

Senator Berthel supports this bill. Senator Berthel states The State Department of Education would make curriculum available for students to take a real estate licensing course which would create opportunities applicable to their future career goals. Additionally, Senator Berthel states if students take a real estate licensing course it may promote their interests in similar fields such as business, accounting, and financial services.

NATURE AND SOURCES OF OPPOSITION:

None.
