

I oppose Bill HB 7005 because ultimately parent's should have the final say in what chemicals do or don't get injected into their bodies. I personally know children who were perfectly healthy until a day or two after an MMR vaccine, and they instantly became autistic....not over time, instantly.

It's crazy to force parents to immunize their children against their will. The government does not know best and neither do pharmaceutical companies.

Linda Goodall
West Haven CT