

I am writing you today about my concern for bill HB 7005. I am apposed to this bill because it takes away our religious freedom to care for our children in a way each parent sees fit.

Thank you for your consideration.

Kristina Isacson