

Hello,

I support the spirit of HB7005, and I support the removal of school nurses. However, I believe the addition of clergy is unnecessary and believe it should be stricken from the bill.

A nurse's job is to uphold the medical safety of others. Having them sign off on Religious Exemption Forms goes against everything they were taught, studied and practiced.

Danielle Morfi