

To the members of the committee:

I oppose any legislation that would restrict a parent's right to religious vaccine exemptions.

The Connecticut vaccination rate is currently at 95.6%. The current law is working. Therefore, there is no need to make it more difficult for parents to assert religious vaccine exemptions.

Connecticut law state that every child over the age of 5 has the right to a free and public education. This bill is a violation of the first amendment, The Freedom Of Religion and it cannot move forward!

Sincerely,
Eliza Swiatek
