

Sealing of ALL true/original birth records, "across the board," even in so-called "open" adoptions, "protects" nothing and no one -- except baby brokers and agencies' concealing illegal methods for procuring "adoptable" babies and the adoptees' outcomes-- (current example: NO ONE knows WHERE the immigrant children who are still being illegally separated from their parents at the California Mexico border and sent to unknown locations, reportedly to 16 different states, allegedly including Connecticut, have actually ended up nor whether they have been adopted or sold to sex traffickers, ets. -- government protected child stealing) -- State sealed birth/adoption records laws are said to give "different rights" to adopted adults depending on state of birth/adoption in violation of the Constitution's Equal Protection clause. For PROOF as to how sealed records NEGATIVELY impact child and adult adoptees' outcomes, and is NOT in their "best interests," refer to the following in-depth PAPERBACK books, available with Descriptions and "Look Inside" sample pages, at Amazon - <https://www.amazon.com/Lori-Carangelo/e/B001KCH348> -- or I'll be happy to email FREE PDF versions to CT legislators involved with SB 972, on request :
