

> On Mar 11, 2019, at 1:25 PM, susan <susanagriffin@aol.com> wrote:

>

> I had a child in 1971 who was placed for adoption through the Catholic

> Family Services in CT. I was 17 at the time of his birth. My son and I were reunited in 1992, when he was 21. We have a positive healthy relationship which includes all sides of the adoption triad. Everyone had benefited from this reunion.

> The truth is always better than the not knowing. Please allow adoption records to be open!