

Support for S.B. 972

I write as both an adopted person and an adoptive parent to urge you to give adopted people the dignity of a legal right to their original birth certificate. More and more states are doing so. Please help Connecticut join them. It put ground under my feet just to know the name of the mother who had given birth to me!

Penelope Partridge

Milton, Massachusetts