

I am an adoptee, I am a birth parent and I am an adoption social worker. I believe all people have a right to information about themselves. It is time to stop denying equal access to documentation about a person's birth that all other citizens, except for adopted persons, are allowed access to upon reaching adult age.

Thank you,

Rebecca L. Ricardo, LCSW