

Please pass the adoptee rights bill. Connecticut has a contact preference form where birth parents can state if they are willing to be contacted, all the while protecting the right of an adoptee to access his/her birth certificate. As a birth mother I implore you to allow adoptees to have access to their birth certificate.

We need to stop prejudicing children who have been adopted. Thank you,

--

the Sassea One,
Marlene A. Sassaman