

To whom It may concern:

I was born in 1975 in Bridgeport Connecticut and adopted by a wonderful family. I am grateful for being giving me an opportunity to be born. I may never know or connect with my birth mother or father but if I do I would like that to be a choice and a private moment rather than being outted by dna and social media.

Thank you
Melanie Smith