

Please support and pass SB972. I have been an adoption clinician for 29 years. It is important that an adult adoptee find their birth parents in order to understand the reason and to support a better sense of self and identity. Thank you. Barbara Sugar