

Assisted suicide is a slap in face to God and to society. Every day we have is a gift. Our seniors and terminally ill need our love, help, and respect not death. Our Constitution and Bill of Rights guarantee us the right to LIFE, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Assisted suicide, as well as abortion are both morally wrong and reprehensible.

Sincerely,
Raymond W. Dunn